

CELTIC WORSHIP

COLLECTION

A new powerful concept-driven Celtic album presenting today's best loved Celtic artists sharing their hearts through music.

CELTIC EXPRESSIONS OF WORSHIP

After three years, Eden's Bridge are releasing a new Celtic album. It's also been three years since Maire Brennan released a solo album and has just released a new album of 'New Irish Hymns' with Joanne Hogg and Margaret Becker.

The rich powerful heritage of the Celts is wonderfully woven in their Music. From this deeply artistic and musical tradition comes an album of warm powerful songs that are designed to draw the listener into a time of their own worship.

Previous Reviews Of Eden's Bridge

"Your talent is phenomenal and I can honestly say that hearing Sarah sing is like listening to a piece of heaven. I, without a doubt, will be buying the rest of your CDs. My nine month old daughter was recently diagnosed with Cerebral Palsy and your music has definitely helped me feel closer to Jesus through this trying time. I cannot express enough thanks to you all."

"Featuring the ethereal voice of Sarah Lacy that soars above the lush but tasteful production, provides a wonderful atmosphere of worship for the listener. For those familiar with the sounds of IONA and CLANNAD, EDEN'S BRIDGE falls somewhat between the two but does not suffer from comparison with either."
